Key G.

Sal - ly! do you re - member the time, When you lived down in our al - ley?
Sal - ly! though you have wandered a - way, Still you live down in our al - ley.

— Although it's long a - go — still I know, In my heart there's nothing else but love will grow, — In ev'ry corner dear — I can hear, Echoes of the laughter that just brings you near,

I don't know much a - bout bliss, But be - lieve me when I say this.
Though we may not meet a gain, There's a mem'ry that will re - main.

Chorus for Bows.

CHORUS.

Sal - ly! Sal - ly! You brought the sun-shine to our al - ley. For on that midsummer morn, When you were born, You brought the scent of ro - ses and the waving corn.

Sal - ly! you made our al - ley A par-a-dise dropped from the sky. But when you went a-way went a - way, All the birds and flowers seemed to fade in a day, For Sal - ly! You took the sunshine from our alley. When you said Good - bye! - bye!

Handwritten notes: Retard, A tempo, 1. 2., OUT, sf
